A Customer Privacy Statement from Safety Insurance

Your privacy is important to you. And it's just as important to us. We at Safety Insurance value the trust you place in our hands when you supply us with your nonpublic personal information. We want you to understand how we protect the confidentiality of that information as well as how and why we use and disclose it. This statement explains Safety's practices and procedures for protecting the security of your personal information both while you are a customer and thereafter.

How We Protect Your Information

We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to guard your nonpublic personal information. We limit access to your nonpublic personal information to our employees, your insurance agent, and others who need to know such information to provide our products and services to you.

---

What Personal Information We Collect About You

We collect nonpublic personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on applications and other forms;
- Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates, or others; and
- Information we receive from consumer reporting agencies, government agencies, other insurance companies, investigators connected with claims adjusting, and insurance support organizations as permitted by law.

What Personal Information We Disclose About You

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our customers or former customers to anyone, except as permitted by law.
